Party Policies

Food & Beverage

We can provide pizza and a birthday cake for an additional cost of $75.00. If you prefer to bring your own food and cake, we ask that you keep a few things in mind:

*Red and blue beverages are prohibited in all YMCA facilities.

*Refrigeration is not available.

*You are responsible for cleaning any messes caused by any food you bring into YMCA Facilities.

Decorations & Party Favors

We provide all the eating utensils and decorations free of charge! This includes cups, plates, forks, tablecloths, banners, etc. You are welcome to bring your own decorations if you choose.

The YMCA does not provide party favors for your guests. If you wish to send your guests home with a fun little something, you will be responsible for purchasing and preparing your party favors.

Adult Supervision, Discipline, & Liability

We will have a trained YMCA Birthday Party Host on site for every party, and the Youth Development Specialist, Emilie Kennedy, will be on call in the event of an emergency. However, adult supervision is required. At least one parent/guardian of the birthday child must be present for the duration of the party. Children cannot be left along with our party host at any time.

The parent/guardian present is solely responsible for disciplinary issues. The party host will present the facility rules to encourage fun and ensure safety and will voice concerns as they arise to the responsible adult. At that point, it is the responsibility of the adult to take disciplinary action where needed.

The Sioux Falls Family YMCA is not responsible for any and all injuries sustained by guests while in any of the YMCA facilities or on YMCA property, regardless of severity. All our staff are trained in and hold certification for CPR, AED, and First Aid, and will provide for any immediate needs. In the case of a severe injury, professional emergency care will be contacted and our trained staff will maintain temporary care of the injured person until professional care providers arrive.

The parent/guardian present will be held liable for damaged property and/or equipment owned by the Sioux Fall Family YMCA. If property and/or equipment is damaged by birthday party guests, the responsible parent/guardian will be billed for the cost of necessary repair or replacement of the damaged property and/or equipment.

Waivers for adult supervision, discipline, and liability for injury and/or damaged property must be signed by the responsible parent/guardian before the event of a birthday party. If a parent/guardian refuses to sign the required waivers or abide by YMCA policies, their request for a birthday party will be denied and their deposit will not be refunded.

Payments & Refunds

Upon reserving any of our birthday party packages, a non-refundable deposit of $50 must be paid. If a party is cancelled by either party for any reason after the deposit is paid, the deposit will not be refunded. After the deposit is due before or on the day of the party. If a party is cancelled by either party for any reason after the remaining balance is paid, the equivalent of the remaining balance will be refunded.

Payments can be made via credit/debit card, check, or cash. Payments made by card can be processed at any time or location. Payments made by check or cash must be processed at our downtown facility. Receipts for all payments can be printed or emailed to the adult making the payment.
